Kim,
Good luck in everything you do. We'll only have two more years in this school and will be out for good. Always remember me to your class of '14. Good luck with Stud. 7
Good and take care

Kim,
So a real cute girl.
Good luck in the future and be good to stub.
Don't forget the good times we had on the bus.

Be good.

Kim,
I think you, Cindy
and Nelson made my Sophomore year. Carol and Crist made this year and I hope next. But those year are important I guess.
So be really good. If you many stub, we'll be together
a long time so see you around.

times we have had in the past,
and don't forget me!
Brenda "15"

Kim,
To one of the best friends I've ever had. Take care of stub. I'll never forget the times I stayed with me and I did your hair a good time. I'd make a good

Dedication

We, the class of Nineteen-hundred and seventy-two, proudly dedicate this edition of The Gusher to Mr. Ronald Stabley.

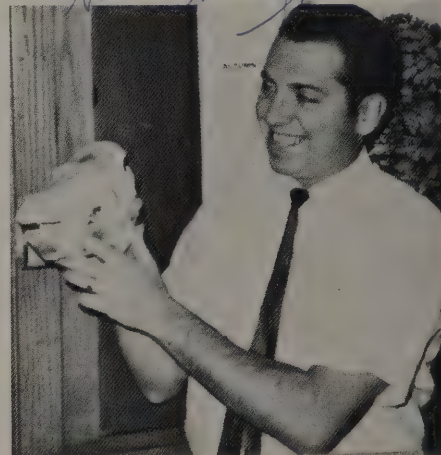

Mr. Stabley, during his past nine years here, has enlightened his classes with light humor, while teaching us the fundamentals of the basic Sciences.

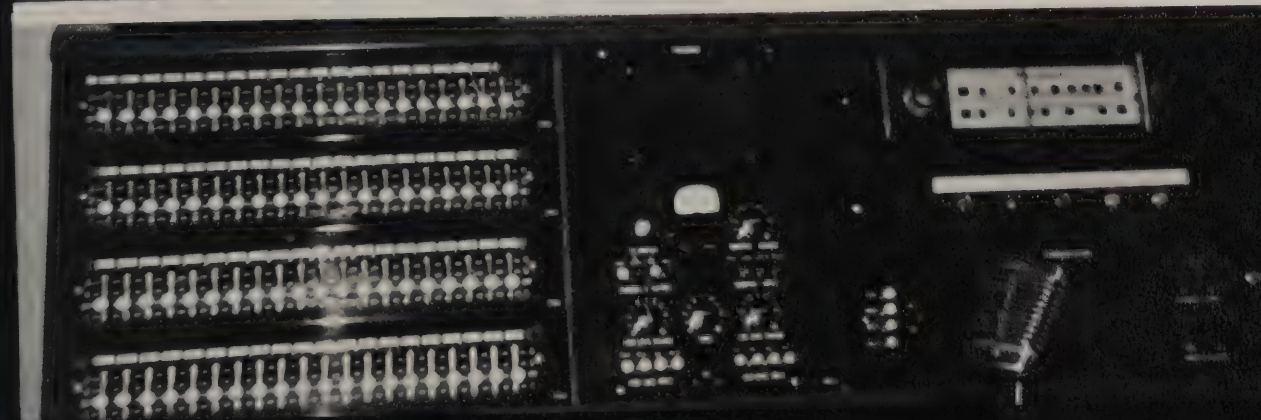

His enthusiasm, hard work, and ability to get along with students have paved the way to success in his teaching career.

With sincere pleasure and pride, we give you a year full of memories to add to your collection of fine accomplishments.

To the Seniors of 1972:

There is a great deal of pride in the hearts of your parents and our faculty as we look forward to the day of your graduation. Your success is due to individual and group dedication which has carried your class to this peak of achievement.

The urge to strive for change must be maintained, but the responsibilities for the future should be foremost in your thoughts. May the greatness visioned for your generation make you ever mindful of the needs for worthwhile contributions to our society.

Our very best wishes to you and may your zeal for accomplishments be with you always.

Sincerely,

George Kuhn,

Cole, D. Paffie, Coach R. Dunsmore.

With new head coach, Robert Dunsmore, and few returning seniors, the Bulldogs rebuilt their team for the coming years. The Bulldogs were led this year by captains Bubba Paffie and Crazy Legs Yehl. The backfield was composed of senior veterans O.J. Cornelius, Y.A. Rasmusson, and Rodney "the Magician" Fitch. The seniors on the line included Mean Mark Pinney, Speedy Joe Schaffner, Otto Hackett, Roosevelt Browner, and Bradley "the Cow" Sexton. These inexperienced players gave many a thrilling moment to fans before losing to the bigger schools. Next year the fighting Bulldogs move to the Seneca League. With the rebuilding year behind us, there should be a few surprises in the Seneca League next year.

SIXTH ROW: R.Cornelius, J.Dempsey, D.Shields. SEVENTH ROW: M.Crowley. Absent, R.Childs, S.Hackett, R.Torrey.

The Bolivar Cindermen's reign as track Kings ended last year after winning nine straight county championships. Seeking revenge against last year's spoilers, Bolivar's hopes for a new dynasty depend upon Rick Cornelius, Randy Torrey and Mark Miller in the sprints; Mark Crowley, Steve Yehl, Rick Childs and Stub Hackett in the field events; and Don Paffie, Les Gregg, John Wight, Bill Horn, Ted Barth and Doug Mitchell who will make up the finest crop of distance runners the area has seen in a decade. The trackers will try to retain the Bolivar Relays championship of which they have won five straight without a loss.

The baseball season has stretched itself to twice the size it has been in previous years. This year's schedule had 18 games which included new rivals, Portville and Olean. This year's baseball team lacked seasoned veterans, size and power, but gained vital experience for the younger players. Returning regulars included Mark Crowley, Don Paffie, Steve Yehl, and Randy Torrey. Last year's depth, which was unleashed by Coach Lindamer, included Rod Fitch, Randy Sloat, Gary Perrin, and Bruce Weber.

The Future Teachers Club is an organization of students who show an interest in a teaching career. Qualified teachers are very hard to find, and with the FTA, these students prepare themselves with the necessary experience to pursue this worthy profession. After graduating, there will still be untouched hurdles which our student teachers must jump, but with the opportunity these kids have had, they are within an arm's reach of their goals.

The FNA is an organization that instills an interest for girls who plan a career in nursing. Nurses are an essential lifeline in today's world. Without them, hospitals and life-saving volunteer work would collapse. This club, like the other school clubs, enables the girls to receive valuable experience on the high school level. This year, as in the past, the members will offer their time and assistance in the Wellsville Hospital where they'll work as candy-stripers.
